Business-City Council Candidate interviews

Zack Osborn

- Wants to be an educated and informed City Council member.
- Take initiative to bring the gap between what people want to what can be done.
- City Council member becomes a more active member of the community. Will go on foot to area businesses to see what is happening.
- If not selected to be on the City Council, would be willing to volunteer on a different board.

Margo Pizzi

- History is a big thing.
- One on one communicator.
- Prefers to work together.
- Growth of some type to bring and keep young people here.
- If not selected to be on the City Council, would be willing to volunteer on a different board.

Mandy Lounibos

- Cares about community and community health.
- Chooses to stay here and make this her home.
- No real agenda-just promote community health.
- Agrees with a lot of the Master Plan goals.
- Support community in its missions.

Public Comment

Alan Salmi-121 E. Water Street-candidates are dedicated to the community. Willing to help out with grant writing.
