Update/information

- Reviewed the February 14th & March 14th HB&PA minutes

- Noted the City estimates a savings of $10,000 with the new Quincy Street LED historic lights that replaced the old sodium 250 watt light bulbs.
- Heard Hebert Construction is planning to start the reconstruction on Front Street by the last week in April and should be done by mid-July.
- Heard Advance Auto is purchasing Car Quest and will be rebranding the Hancock store located at 121/123 Quincy St.
- Heard Mark Elmer held an open house for “The Bank” housing project located at 100 Quincy St.

The DDA board discussed the progress on the roof repairs for the old hardware building caused by this year’s heavy snow and voted that the owner has filed an insurance claim for the planned repair work.

It was moved by McKenzie seconded by Lang to adjourn at 6:10 P.M.
