

Hancock Sesquicentennial Celebration

Upcoming events:

May 21, 2013, 7:00 pm, Finnish American Heritage Center

"It's a Long Way From Tipperary: Early Irish Settlers and Leaders in Hancock" by Dr. William H. Mulligan, Jr. William H. Mulligan, Jr. is a professor of History at Murray State University. He is the MSU Alumni Association's Distinguished Researcher for 2012-13, largely for his research on the Irish in the Copper Country, which he began while living in Negaunee, Michigan, and teaching part-time at Michigan Tech. He was born in Brooklyn, New York, and has degrees from Assumption College and Clark University, both in Worcester, Massachusetts. Bill resides in Murray, Kentucky.

June 6, 2013, 7:00 pm, Copper County Community Arts Center (please use side door off of Tezcuco Street)

"Mary Chase Perry Stratton: Journey of a Pioneering Spirit" Welcoming Reception

The City of Hancock is hosting the traveling exhibition "Mary Chase Perry Stratton: Journey of a Pioneering Spirit" throughout the summer months. This welcoming reception will feature an introduction to Mrs. Stratton and her art by author Stephen Smith and comments on the local Pewabic House organization by Denise Vandeville. The exhibition will then be on display at Magic Kiln Studio, the Finnish American Heritage Center, the Hancock Public Library, and the Jutila Center.

June 11, 2013, 7:00 pm, Finnish American Heritage Center

"Cornish Miner Immigration to Keweenaw-Hancock" by Jay Rowe

June 21, 2013, 7:00 pm,

Parade, joint with Bridgefest and FinnFest USA

June 29, 2013

Copper Country Firefighters Tournament