

399 Quincy Street, Hancock, MI 49930 phone: (906)482-2720
fax: (906)482-7910

CHIEF OF POLICE
CITY OF HANCOCK, MICHIGAN

The City of Hancock, Michigan, population of 4,634 a full service city of about 2.43 sq. miles, home of Finlandia University and Portage Health Hospital seeks qualified candidates to lead the City of Hancock Police Department. The current chief is retiring after 38 years as a police officer, 26 years as chief. The department has 7 full time employees, including the chief, and several part time officers.

The city is primarily residential in nature, has an excellent school system, and has considerable year round recreational opportunities, including the city's 24 km Maasto Hiihto cross country ski trail. The city has a vibrant downtown, and is home to 250 businesses employing 2,400 people.

Candidates must be committed to training, professional development and community engagement. Candidates should possess a minimum of an associate degree, and have at least five years of experience in a law enforcement leadership position with municipal experience preferred.

The salary range is $55,000 to $60,000. Submit resume and 5 professional references by Friday, September 19, 2014 to Glenn Anderson, City Manager, City of Hancock, 399 Quincy St., Hancock, MI 49930

-“This institution is an equal opportunity provider and employer”-

